

Read and Win $50!

a 2009 HCCTA Community Reads Activity

Any high school student who reads the 2009 HCCTA Community Reads book Pressure is a Privilege by Billie Jean King and answers one of the questions below will have their name entered into a $50 gift card (Visa or MasterCard) raffle.

Winner drawn May 2010

Books are at Hamilton County public libraries and high school libraries.

Directions:

Answer one of the three questions below in five to ten sentences. Email your answer to j.cazier@comcast.net. Include your name, school, and phone. You will receive a confirmation email that your answer was received.

1. Because of BJK's efforts women's tennis, professional tennis and women's sports were changed. Describe the area of change that had the most impact on your life.
2. Interview three people who watched the Billie Jean King/Bobby Riggs match and summarize what they felt was the impact on women's sports or women's equality.
3. Why does BJK consider pressure a privilege? Give an example from your life that supports whether or not you think it is a privilege.